

Canadian Studies and English

The Canadian Studies Program and Department of English at Mount Allison University invite applications for a tenure track position in Canadian cultural and literary studies. The successful applicant will hold a Ph.D. in a field relevant to the position. This position will be located in Canadian Studies where the successful candidate will participate in Canadian Studies team-taught introductory courses and teach and develop courses on Canadian culture, media, or communications.

In the Department of English, the successful candidate will teach an average of two courses per year in Canadian literature. Mount Allison University is a liberal arts and science institution committed to high quality undergraduate education, student engagement, and rigorous research. The successful candidate is expected to maintain an active and Productive research programme and contribute to the educational, research And institutional objectives of the University. More information about Canadian Studies and the Department of English at Mount Allison

University can be found here:

<http://www.mta.ca/canadianstudies/>

<http://www.mta.ca/english/>

The appointment will be at the rank of Assistant Professor, and the anticipated start date for the position is July 1, 2014, subject to budgetary approval.

Applications must include a curriculum vitae, a statement of research plans and objectives, evidence of effective teaching and a brief statement of teaching philosophy. Applicants should also arrange for three letters of reference to be sent in support of their applications. All materials should be received by 14 February 2014.

They should be sent to:

Chair of the Search Committee

Canadian Studies

Mount Allison University

63D York St.

Sackville, NB

E4L 1G9

Or, via electronic submission to: canadianstudies@mta.ca

Mount Allison University welcomes diversity in the workplace and encourages applications from all qualified women and men, including aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, and members of visible minorities. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

Canadian and permanent residents should indicate their citizenship status in their application.